8. On May 9, 2022, the Probate Court of Auglaize County, Ohio appointed R. C. Wiesenmayer, Executor of the Estate of Elvin D. Jones deceased on April 22, 2022, domiciled in Clay Township, Auglaize County, Ohio. A copy of the Entry Appointing Fiduciary; Letters of Authority is attached hereto marked as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

9. On April 25, 2022, R. C. Wiesenmayer certified, by Trustee's Certificate Memorandum/Affidavit of Trust, that he was serving as the Successor Trustee to the Elvin D. Jones Revocable Living Trust, dated May 21, 2010, as provided by the terms and provisions of said Trust. A copy of said Trustee's Certificate Memorandum/Affidavit of Trust, consisting of 3 pages, is attached hereto marked as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

10. On May 12, 2022, Plaintiff, as Trustee of the Elvin D. Jones Revocable Trust, dated May 21, 2010, filed the Thrift Savings Plan Form TSP-17 reporting the death of Elvin D. Jones and requested the processing of said decedent's account with Thrift Savings Plan. A copy of said Form TSP-17, including the Fax Transmittal and the Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 5 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit C and incorporated herein by reference.

11. Plaintiff further states that said claim, as "Trustee", was made based upon the Thrift Savings Plan 2021 Annual Statement indicating the account balance of $204,067.93 and naming the primary beneficiary as the "Elvin D. Jones Trust – 100% share". A copy of said Thrift Savings Plan 2021 Annual Statement, including the Fax Transmittal and the Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 5 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit D and incorporated herein by reference.

12. On June 3, 2022, Plaintiff, acting as Trustee of the Elvin D. A copy of said Fax Transmittal, along with the Transmission Verification Report and the Request Letter from Thrift Savings Plan Death Benefits Processing Unit, consisting of 3 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit E and incorporated herein by reference.

13. On July 9, 2022, the Estate of Elvin D. Jones received Notice that the trust documents provided to Thrift Savings Plan on June 3, 2022 were not sufficient in that The Elvin D. Jones Revocable Trust was not "named" as a beneficiary; and that certified letters of administration was required to be submitted for review. A reply to said Notice was made on July 11, 2022, setting forth the pages of the Thrift Savings Plan 2021 Annual Statement for Elvin D. Jones (Exhibit D), which clearly states on page 3, that "The Elvin D. Jones Trust" was the "beneficiary". A copy of said Notice, the reply Fax Transmittal and the Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 3 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit F and incorporated herein by reference.

14. On August 12, 2022, Plaintiff R. C. Wiesenmayer, acting on behalf of the decedent Elvin D. Jones, faxed a Subpoena to the Thrift Savings Plan to clarify the primary beneficiary designation and to request a reason for the delay in processing the claim. A copy of said Civil Subpoena Duces Tecum, along with the Fax Transmittal and the Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 6 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit G and incorporated herein by reference.

15. On September 20, 2022, Plaintiff R. C. Wiesenmayer, acting on behalf of the decedent, Elvin D. Jones, furnished additional information to Thrift Savings Plan, consisting of the Entry Appointing Fiduciary; Letters of Authority (Exhibit A). A copy of said Fax Transmittal, including the Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 2 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit H and incorporated herein by reference.

16. On October 26, 2022, "Form TSP-17 - Unidentified Beneficiary Affidavit" was faxed to the Thrift Saving Plan, again claiming the funds belonging to Elvin D. Jones were payable to the Executor of the Elvin D. Jones Estate. Said Form TSP-17 – Unidentified Beneficiary Affidavit, including the faxed Transmission Verification Report, consisting of 7 pages, are attached hereto marked as Exhibit I and incorporated herein by reference.

17. On or about June 1, 2022, the Defendant, Thrift Savings Plan, mailed a Statement covering the period of April 1, 2022 thru May 26, 2022, indicating the value of the account had been reduced to $191,098.71, which was mailed to "The Estate of Elvin D. Jones" using his "1059 Princewood Avenue" address in Kettering, Ohio, although the Thrift Savings Plan knew, or should have known, that Elvin D. Jones was deceased, since the Statement was sent to his "Estate" and that his estate was represented by R. C. Wiesenmayer in the capacity of "Executor" and "Trustee". A copy of said Statement, consisting of 2 pages, is attached hereto marked as Exhibit J and incorporated herein by reference.

18. Plaintiff further states that on December 28, 2022, an email was sent to TSP Death Benefits, Thrift Line Service Center for an explanation as to the numerous attempts that have been made to access the funds belonging to the decedent, Elvin D. Jones, and the failure of any responsive information as to what additional information would be necessary for the applicant to complete the redemption of the Thrift Saving Plan. A copy of said Email Transmittal is attached hereto marked as Exhibit K and incorporated herein by reference.

19. Plaintiff further states that his notes reflect that a phone call was made on January 12, 2023 to the Thrift Savings Plan to inquire as to when to expect the redemption of the Thrift Savings Plan belonging to the decedent, Elvin D. Jones, and no information was furnished on the expected date for redemption.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Breach of Contract

20. Plaintiff realleges, restates, and reavers all allegations contained in the previous paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully rewritten herein.

21. Plaintiff states that all the Defendants have breached the terms and provisions of the Thrift Savings Plan of Elvin D. Jones, being account #8201 3519 56679, by the failure to process Form TSP-17 duly submitted by the Trustee of the Elvin D. Jones Revocable Trust, dated May 21, 2019; and also submitted by the Executor of the Elvin D. Jones Estate pending in the Auglaize County Probate Court.

22. Plaintiff further states that the beneficiaries of the Elvin D. Jones Estate and the Elvin D. Jones Revocable Trust have been damaged in the amount of $191,098.71, being the balance in the account on May 26, 2022.

23. Plaintiff further states that Defendant Thrift Saving Plan has intentionally refused to assist in the timely processing of the claim for decedent, Elvin D. Jones, being account #8201 3519 56679, by the total disregard of responding to the Civil Subpoena issued for information concerning the processing of said claim; and for the repeated failure to explain the reason for the continued delay in furnishing R. C. Wiesenmayer, as Executor and as Trustee, with any reason or cause for the failure to immediately process and disburse the proceeds of said decedent's claim for the benefit of the estate beneficiaries and the trust beneficiaries; and thereby afflicting additional damage, inconvenience, and loss in the amount of $50,000.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant Thrift Savings Plan in the amount of $241,098.71, plus interest thereon from and after June 1, 2022, for the costs incurred in bringing this action, for reasonable attorney fees, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

“EXHIBIT A”

ARTICLE VI. - FIDUCIARY PROVISIONS

6.1 Powers: Any TRUSTEE serving hereunder shall have all of the powers from time-to-time conferred upon TRUSTEES by law, except to the extent a power would conflict with this instrument, in which case the provisions of this instrument shall control. In addition to such powers, any TRUSTEE serving hereunder is specifically authorized:

- (a) To retain any property originally constituting the TRUST or subsequently added thereto, although not of a type, quality, or diversification considered proper for TRUST investments;
- (b) To invest in and or otherwise acquire any property, without being bound by any provision of law restricting investments by TRUSTEES, including but not limited to common and preferred stock, secured and unsecured obligations, mutual and common funds, other securities, mortgages, and interest and options in any of the foregoing;
- (c) To cause any property, real or personal, belonging to the TRUST to be held or registered in the TRUSTEE'S name or in the name of a nominee or in such other form as the TRUSTEE deems best without disclosing the relationship;
- (d) To vote in person or by general or limited proxy, or refrain from voting, any corporate securities for any purpose, except that any security as to which the possession of the TRUSTEE of voting discretion would subject the issuing company or the TRUSTEE to any law, rule or regulation adversely affecting either the company or the ability of the TRUSTEE to retain or vote company securities, shall be voted as directed by the beneficiaries then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income from the TRUST; to exercise or sell any subscription or conversion rights; to consent to and join in or oppose any voting trusts, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers, foreclosures and liquidations and in connection therewith to deposit securities and accept and hold other property received therefor;
- (e) To lease TRUST property for any period of time though commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the TRUST;
- (f) To borrow money from any lender, extend or renew any existing indebtedness, mortgage or pledge any property in the TRUST, and to guarantee any indebtedness.
- (g) To sell, without the necessity of authorization by any court, at public or private sale, contract to sell, convey, exchange, transfer and otherwise deal with the TRUST property, real or personal, and any reinvestments thereof, and to sell put and covered call options, from time-to-time for such price and upon such terms as the TRUSTEE sees fit;

- (j) To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests or different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment need be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for Federal income tax purposes; to value the TRUST property and to sell any part or all thereof in order to make allocation or distribution; no action taken by the TRUSTEE pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to question by any beneficiary; provided, however, in exercising the foregoing judgment, the TRUSTEE shall act in fair and impartial manner with respect to all beneficiaries such that the exercise of the judgment of the TRUSTEE in the selection and valuation of assets to be divided, distributed or allocated shall not jeopardize the intended estate and transfer tax results of such gifts, including any otherwise available marital or charitable deduction;
- (k) To deal with, purchase assets from, or make loans to, the fiduciary of any TRUST made by me or any member of my family or a TRUST or estate in which any beneficiary under this instrument has an interest, though a TRUSTEE hereunder is the fiduciary or a beneficiary; to deal with a corporate TRUSTEE hereunder individually or a parent or affiliate company;

Section 1361(d) on terms similar to those contained in this instrument and the allocation of such stock to such TRUST or TRUSTS.
- (q) To follow the provisions of Ohio Revised Code Section 1340.01 through 1340.13 (the Ohio Principal and Income Act or "the Act") in allocating receipts and disbursements between income and principal; the TRUSTEE shall have full authority, nonetheless, to make allocations contrary to those required by the Act whenever it, in its sole discretion, shall determine that a different allocation will better effectuate the purposes of the TRUST, or any separate TRUST created hereunder, and no claim may be made or recovery had against the TRUSTEE on the basis of any allocation decision made by it.
- (r) So long as the initial TRUSTEE is acting for this TRUST, he or she shall have the power and authority to make gifts of any TRUST property to any person without any limitations whatsoever. However, if the initial TRUSTEE is not acting as the TRUSTEE at the time an attempted gift is made, then this provision shall not authorize gifting for any persons other than the initial TRUSTEE.

Attorney for Plaintiff

EXHIBIT A*CIVIL RULE 45 – Subpoena*(C) Protection of persons subject to subpoenas.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena.

(2) (a) A person commanded to produce under divisions (A)(1)(b), (iii), (iv), (v), or (vi) of this rule need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to attend and give testimony at a deposition, hearing, or trial.
(b) Subject to division (D)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce under divisions (A)(1)(b), (iii), (iv), (v), or (vi) of this rule may, within fourteen days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objections to production. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to production except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, may move at any time for an order to compel the production. An order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the production commanded.

(3) On timely motion, the court from which the subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena, or order appearance or production only under specified conditions, if the subpoena does any of the following:

- (a) Fails to allow reasonable time to comply;
- (b) Requires disclosure of privileged or otherwise protected matter and no exception or waiver applies;
- (c) Requires disclosure of a fact known or opinion held by an expert not retained or specially employed by any party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial as described by Civ.R. 26(B)(5), if the fact or opinion does not describe specific events or occurrences in dispute and results from study by that expert that was not made at the request of any party;
- (d) Subjects a person to undue burden.

(4) Before filing a motion pursuant to division (C)(3)(d) of this rule, a person resisting discovery under this rule shall attempt to resolve any claim of undue burden through discussions with the issuing attorney. A motion filed pursuant to division (C)(3)(d) of this rule shall be supported by an affidavit of the subpoenaed person or a certificate of that person's attorney of the efforts made to resolve any claim of undue burden.

(5) If a motion is made under division (C)(3)(c) or (C)(3)(d) of this rule, the court shall quash or modify the subpoena unless the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated.

(D) Duties in responding to subpoena.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall, at the person's option, produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the subpoena. A person producing documents or electronically stored information pursuant to a subpoena for them shall permit their inspection and copying by all parties present at the time and place set in the subpoena for inspection and copying.

(2) If a request does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena may produce the information in a form or forms in which the information is ordinarily maintained if that form is reasonably useable, or in any form that is reasonably useable. Unless ordered by the court or agreed to by the person subpoenaed, a person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(3) A person need not provide discovery of electronically stored information when the production imposes undue burden or expense. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person from whom electronically stored information is sought must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or expense. If a showing of undue burden or expense is made, the court may nonetheless order production of electronically stored information if the requesting party shows good cause. The court shall consider the factors in Civ. R. 26(B)(4) when determining if good cause exists. In ordering production of electronically stored information, the court may specify the format, extent, timing, allocation of expenses and other conditions for the discovery of the electronically stored information.

(4) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Rebby called Jan 12, 2023

TO THE BOARD:

This is to notify you that we have been trying to process a death benefit claim for Elvin D. Jones, who was the owner of Thrift Savings Plan Account #8201351956679. Elvin Jones was a retiree from the Defense Finance & Accounting Services at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio.

On October 26, 2022 we faxed to 1-276-926-8948 a completed TSP-17, Unidentified Beneficiary Affidavit, to process his Thrift Savings Plan. His statement for 12/31/2021 showed a value of $204,067.93. The 2021 statement sent to Elvin Jones indicated his primary beneficiary was the Elvin D. Jones Trust – 100%. I am sending herewith a copy of the 2021 annual statement, which contains the information set forth.

In May of 2022 we attempted to process his benefits through the Trust and was informed that Thrift Savings Plan had changed systems and there was no evidence of a valid beneficiary appointment and therefore they could not process the application as a trust beneficiary. We then proceeded on October 26, 2022 to process the current claim as a TSP-17, Unidentified Beneficiary Affidavit, and have repeatedly been told it is being reviewed for process. We initially contacted a person by the name of Kate on November 28, 2022 and was informed that there was no time estimate as to when the payment would be processed but it was marked high priority. On December 19, 2022 we talked to an individual by the name of Trey and he indicated it was still under review. On December 28, 2022 we talked to a person named Michelle, who is a Tier II Operator, and she likewise advised us that the necessary paperwork was submitted and for some unknown reason it was still marked "under review". Michelle actually told us if we were to get any kind of action we needed to contact "The Board" at this email.

On August 12, 2022 we sent a fax to 276-926-8948 for a Civil Subpoena Duces Tecum to the Thrift Savings Plan in Newark, New Jersey, indicating a need for information and the subpoena was never honored with no information being returned. We are now at the point to report this to our local congressman or senator in order to get some action. We are considering filing a legal proceeding in the Probate Court in addition to contacting the government representative. We request that there be some response given to our request to process this Thrift Savings Plan immediately so we can continue to administer the decedent's estate. The Probate Court requires an account to be filed and we have continually notified them that we are trying to get information on the Thrift Savings Plan and therefore have delayed completing the estate inventory. This matter deserves your immediate attention and I suggest you review the entire file to see that we have provided all the necessary information with no success. Each of the people we have talked to, Kate, Trey and Michelle, have confirmed that they have all the information necessary to process payment and have no explanation as to why payment is still being labeled as "under review".
